WHAT DRIVES ME

I'm driven by the push to improve myself; not to be complacent; to be as good as my excellent peers whom I admire very much and to whom I look up to and respect.

5 STRENGTHS OF MINE

The ability to accept change, as the practice and expectations of clients and the industry have changed a lot over the years; my push to keep evolving and not to get stuck in any particular way that I perceive things should happen; my desire to nurture, to mentor young people and lawyers; to accept my mistakes with humility and to accept criticism; and my confidence in myself.

SOMEONE WHO INSPIRES ME...

Elizabeth Ortega, none other so much!
She tells me to keep my focus, to cut out the noise, to roll with the punches!
What better advice can one receive?

MAIN TAKEAWAY FROM A CRISIS

To stay calm, to be a source of strength to others.
And that whatever the problems now,
things will get taken care of and will change.

MY ADVICE FOR FUTURE LITIGATORS

Be aware of changing needs.

ESG is something we never thought of before.

The same is true of the mental health of professionals. But we now know these are very important parts of any practice and conversation, and we need to be awake to the changing landscape of the practice as well as the business world.
