WHAT DRIVES ME

Each assignment entrusted to us by our clients is unique. Whether through the persons encountered or the issues to be solved, there is a sense of constant renewed stimulating challenge.

5 STRENGTHS OF MINE

I shall refrain from naming 5 but if I were to mention only one it would be the "capacity to adapt" to unexpected situations.

This being said, I have heard that I am sometimes perceived as "pugnacious" in the context of court hearings. Is that a strength?

SOMEONE WHO INSPIRES ME...

"Inspire" is probably too dramatic a word but I will admit that Winston Churchill's incredible rhetoric has sometimes been a source of inspiration for the preparation of speaking engagements.

MAIN TAKEAWAY FROM A CRISIS

Try to learn from others' mistakes!

More seriously and with the risk of stating the obvious, I am convinced that crises bring opportunities. In most instances, one comes out stronger and better prepared to face challenging times ahead that will inevitably surface every now and again.

MY EXPERIENCE WITH THE ACADEMY

It has been rewarding to learn from Fellows' expertise in a casual and engaging atmosphere.

I particularly enjoy the Academy format: everyone is encouraged to actively participate, share professional experiences and we debate amongst friends.

MY ADVICE FOR FUTURE LITIGATORS

Life is actually quite long and today's adversary may be tomorrow's ally.
